

CEA Housing Policies

Students should be familiar with CEA's complete housing policies. This information was provided to students as part of the application process and in their pre-departure materials and can also be found on our website: www.ceaStudyAbroad.com/docs/default-source/policy-library/CEA_Policies.

Local Rules & Regulations

Description

You will be living in an apartment or house. Apartments may be co-ed and may be shared with other CEA students, international students and Irish students. Most students will be placed in twin rooms, although some singles are available. By living in this apartment, you will be a short distance from all of the amenities and resources available through NUI Galway.

Meals

No meals are provided with this housing option. All apartments are equipped with a fully functional kitchen with basic appliances and utensils including an oven, fridge/freezer, microwave, vacuum cleaner and an iron and ironing board.

The university's many restaurants provide a variety of meals on campus at competitive prices.

Phone

Each apartment is equipped with a direct dial phone for incoming calls. Please budget extra funds for outgoing calls. Many students either use a calling card or purchase a cell phone upon arrival. Your Galway Director will have additional information on cell phone rental when you arrive in Galway.

Linens

You can either bring your linens with you, or purchase them upon arrival. If you choose to purchase your linens upon arrival, your Galway Director will be available in order to give you more information on where to purchase them. The majority of the beds are twin in size.

Laundry

There is a token operated self service launderette located near the housing complex.

Smoking

All NUIG buildings are non-smoking.

Amenities

Each bedroom is fully furnished and features a study desk, wardrobe, side table and bed. The common living area is carpeted and is furnished with a couch, tv and dining room table and chairs.

Housing Overview

Galway, Ireland

Apartment

Guests

CEA students are responsible for the conduct of their guests while in CEA housing. Overnight guests are not permitted in any housing assignment.

Curfew

Gort na Coiribe housing does not enforce a curfew.

Keys & Security

Each student will be issued keys to their housing upon check-in. Under no circumstances may students make a copy of their keys. In the event that keys are lost during the program, students will be responsible for the cost of replacement. In addition, students are required to follow any additional security procedures as dictated by their specific housing assignment/facility.

Utilities

CEA will cover all reasonable utility expenses. Students who incur utility charges above and beyond what is deemed reasonable by CEA will be responsible for paying the excessive charges. Please note that electricity is very expensive in countries outside the US. Students are expected to be mindful of this when using electricity in their host country, and to be more conservative than they might otherwise be accustomed to.

Damages

All students must respect all furniture, property, and other items provided. All damage, even unintentional, will be billed to the student responsible. If responsibility cannot be determined, the cost will be split equally among all residents. CEA reserves the right to withhold academic transcripts for any outstanding balance on student accounts.
