

Cost Estimates: Federal law allows the use of financial aid to cover all “reasonable” costs of study abroad, including: round-trip transportation, tuition and fees for the program, living costs, passport and visa fees, and health insurance.

Take these cost estimates to your financial aid office. Usually, due to the higher costs of study abroad, the financial aid office may award you more aid. Please note, for fluctuating costs, a range has been included.

Category	Low-End Cost	High-End Cost
Program Fees Paid to CEA
CEA Housing Students will live in an apartment with an Italian roommate. Apartments in Rome are furnished with bed linens, cookware, Internet access, washing machine, and utilities included. No meals are included.	$6,445	$6,445
CEA Program Fees Includes registration, insurance, orientation, airport pickup, welcome and farewell receptions, official transcript, cultural excursions or activities, student support services, CEA on-site staff, and administrative costs.	$2,100	$2,100
Estimated Independent Costs/Spending
International Air Fare & Transfers Cost varies depending on time of purchase, point of origin, and time of travel.	$700	$1,500
Immigration Requirements Includes documents such as visa, passport, or Italian Permesso di Soggiorno.	$300	$300
Books, Materials and Supplies Includes school supplies, art supplies, and course fees; does not include fees for optional courses. Cost varies depending on student course.	$100	$830
Meals Includes the average expected cost for meals in housing option without a meal plan, such as daily groceries and eating out at restaurants.	$735	$2,940
Personal Expenses Includes telephone, laundry, local transportation, and personal necessities; cost varies according to student spending habits.	$980	$3,920
Travel Expenses Includes additional travel outside of CEA excursions; cost varies according to student spending habits.	$245	$4,900
Total Expenses
	$11,605	$22,935