

CEA Housing Policies

Students should be familiar with CEA's complete housing policies. This information was provided to students as part of the application process and in their pre-departure materials and can also be found on our website: www.ceaStudyAbroad.com/docs/default-source/policy-library/CEA_Policies.

Description

You will be living in a shared room within a student residence. Single rooms are available at an additional fee. You will have access to a shared bathroom and shared kitchen as well as common gathering space within the student residence. These residences are generally located in the Surry Hills or Redfern neighborhoods and are conveniently located near mass transit stations. They are open to local university students as well as young professionals in Sydney, but your roommate(s) will be CEA students. Students may expect to commute no longer than about 30 minutes to most key places around Sydney either by public transportation or by foot.

Local Rules & Regulations

Meals

No meals are provided with this housing option. All apartments are equipped with a kitchen with basic appliances.

Phone

There are no phones in the student rooms. However students may use the internet to Skype.

Linens

Bed linen is provided but you should bring your own towels.

Laundry

Shared washing facilities are available onsite.

Smoking

All CEA housing is non-smoking.

Amenities

Each bedroom is fully furnished and features a study desk, wardrobe or closet, side table and bed.

Guests

CEA students are responsible for the conduct of their guests while in CEA housing. Overnight guests are not permitted.

Curfew

CEA housing does not involve a curfew. However students are requested to respect others by keeping noise to a minimum.

Keys & Security

Each student will be issued keys to their housing upon check-in. Under no circumstances may students make a copy of their keys. In the event that keys are lost during the program, students will be responsible for the cost of replacement. In addition, students are required to follow any additional security procedures as dictated by their specific housing assignment/facility.

Utilities

CEA will cover all reasonable utility expenses. Students who incur utility charges above and beyond what is deemed reasonable by CEA will be responsible for paying the excessive charges. Please note that electricity is very expensive in countries outside the US. Students are expected to be mindful of this when using electricity in their host country, and to be more conservative than they might otherwise be accustomed to.

Damages

All students must respect all furniture, property, and other items provided. All damage, even unintentional, will be billed to the student responsible. If responsibility cannot be determined, the cost will be split equally among all residents. CEA reserves the right to withhold academic transcripts for any outstanding balance on student accounts.
