

ACKNOWLEDGMENT REGARDING PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA AND CONSENT FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

1. All personal data you have provided to CEA and its subsidiaries and affiliates (hereafter “CEA”), as well as any entity from whom personal data are collected, and all the further data provided in order to allow the planning and organization of your CEA program(s) of study/internship, and thereof aimed at the performance of the academic and other services to be provided to you, will be processed and handled by CEA in accordance with its policies, with privacy laws of country(ies) of your study and/or internship program, and the EU GDPR. Additionally, personal data will be processed and handled with the principles of fairness, lawfulness, transparency, purpose limitation, accuracy, storage limitation, integrity and confidentiality and accountability, as well as the utmost protection of your privacy. Sensitive data processing will only take place in relation to data regarding your health condition(s), such as but not limited to illnesses, diseases, allergies, treatments, medications or food intolerances; as well as judicial data.

2. All data shall be processed exclusively for CEA institutional purposes, connected or related to the activities carried out by CEA, such as: the study/internship program, the processes of bureaucratic practices for your entry in the country of your CEA program(s) of study/internship; the performance of the contractual obligations of CEA in connection with your CEA program(s) of study/internship including but not limited to: educational organizations, housing vendors, travel vendors, excursion vendors, and other third parties who provide logistics on behalf of CEA for your study/internship program. In particular, the data supplied or collected will be processed for the following purposes:

a) to fulfill the obligations established by any applicable law, including the regulations or the European Union Law;

b) to execute the contractual obligations with reference to your enrolment with the CEA study/internship programs organized by CEA, including but not limited to courses attendance certification, trips and excursions, internship placement, and student health and safety protection;

c) with reference to data provided by public authorities or by hospitals or medical personnel, should an accident, illness or aggression occur to or by the student, in order to take the necessary actions.

Sensitive data regarding your personal health will only be processed for the purpose of protecting student health and safety, researching and assisting in securing available accommodations or treatments abroad, fulfilling the contractual obligations of CEA in connection with your CEA program(s) of study/internship, or of fulfilling the obligations established by law, by regulations or by the European Union Law. Sensitive data regarding judicial measures which may have been provided to CEA by public bodies will be processed only for purposes relating to a health or safety emergency and complying with any applicable mandatory provision of your country(ies) of study/internship or European Union law.

3. Submittal and processing of personal data is necessary in order to achieve the purposes above specified.

4. Any refusal will make it impossible to carry out the necessary activities and the correct administrative and didactic management of student programs necessary to accomplish the contractual obligations of CEA in connection with your study abroad/ internship with, as well as the obligations imposed by law.

5. Data of common nature will be collected and processed automatically and/or manually in compliance with the provisions of any country privacy laws in the location(s) of your study/internship program(s) as well as EU laws and by adopting the related minimum safety measures, securing strictly monitored access; the collecting and processing of sensitive data will be carried out in compliance with the provisions of the above mentioned laws and by adopting the related minimum safety measures.

6. Data processing will take place, according to the aforementioned criteria, only within those offices of CEA premises which are exclusively dedicated to CEA study abroad programs; the data will be handled only by the persons who are in charge and responsible of the related activities and by other persons working on the same areas as specified in internal communications. Such data processing may include sharing to third parties as previously outlined to meet contractual obligations of your CEA study/internship program. Sensitive data will be handled only within offices of CEA premises which are exclusively dedicated to CEA study/internship programs, for the purposes above specified, by persons officially appointed to this task. Your personal data you have provided may be transferred overseas pursuant to the terms, conditions and limits EU and local privacy law(s).

7. In particular, your data may be communicated, in compliance with the rules above indicated, to public or private subjects to whom they may necessary in order to fulfill obligations set forth by laws, regulations or EU laws; sensitive data may be communicated to public bodies and authorities (such as public hospitals, public safety authorities, Police offices, courts, magistrates and the like) and to private subjects (such as private hospitals and clinics, security supervisors, insurance companies) only for purposes relating to health and safety emergency and for the purposes of fulfilling obligations set forth by laws, regulations and EU laws.

8. The Data Controller, under the law and with particular reference to the safety obligations related to the automatic processing of your data, is CEA.

9. All data will be processed by CEA in its capacity as Data Controller with the supervision of a Data Manager available in compliance with EU and various local laws, whom you can reach to the following email: privacy@ceastudyabroad.com

10. You will be able to exercise any and all other rights foreseen by county(ies) privacy and EU laws reproduced hereunder in its entirety:

1. The data subject has the right to obtain confirmation of the existence or not of personal data regarding them, even if not yet recorded, and their communication in intelligible form.

2. The data subject has the right to obtain indication: a) of the origin of the personal data; b) of the ends and methods of its processing; c) of the logics applied in the event of processing being carried out with the aid of electronic equipment; d) of the identification data of the controller, of those responsible and the appointed representative as per Art. 5 paragraph 2; e) of the organizations and categories of organizations to whom personal data can be communicated or who are likely to get to know them in their capacity of designated representative in any area of the country, of officers and appointees.

3. The data subject has the right to obtain: a) the update, the rectification or,, the integration of the data; b) the cancellation, transformation in anonymous form or the blockage of any data processed unlawfully, including those whose storage is not necessary in relation to the aims for which the data were collected or later processed; c) a statement that the operations indicated at letters a) and b), including their content, have been made known to those to whom the data have been communicated or released, except in the case of this being found to be impossible or requiring the use of means which are clearly disproportionate to the protected right.

4. The data subject has the right to completely or partially oppose: a) for legitimate reasons, the processing of personal data regarding them even if relevant to the aims of their collection; b) the processing of personal data regarding them for the purpose of sending publicity material, direct sales or for carrying out market research or commercial communications.”

11. The data subject can exercise the rights (updating, rectification, integration, cancellation, transformation, anonymously or blockage of data processed illegally, opposition, request for information as per EU 2016/679) by contacting CEA or sending an e-mail to the following address: privacy@ceastudyabroad.com

The Regulation (EU) 2016/679 can be found at: http://ec.europa.eu/justice/data-protection/reform/files/regulation_oj_en.pdf